December's training follow up – Words Have Power	At the December meeting Theresa Knorr presented on the use of language, perception, and how the coalition can frame the conversation on addiction and recovery. Coalition members reported	Information from Theresa's training is available on the coalition website.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Judy reported that The Landing at Pine Knolls is in its 17th week with 9 participating youth who are showing positive changes. The program is for HS and MS age students and runs Sundays at 6.</li> <li>• Patty has just begun running a new program for young adults age 21-30 who have been charged with a drug or alcohol offence or young adults who want a better understanding of substance use. She also runs the risk and responsibility class for youth ages 16-21. In her classes she asked about initiation of heroin use and overwhelming the response was that alcohol and marijuana use came before opioid use.</li> </ul>
